Note on Image Rights	The right to one's own image implies that every human being may basically decide for herself/himself if and in what context pictures or films are published (§ 22-24, KunstUrhG, copyright for works of art). The publication of a picture of a person therefore requires his/her consent. By registering for this race, you agree to attend a public event voluntarily. Furthermore, you agree that pictures of you can be used and published from the organizers in electronic media and print media, especially on the homepages of clubs or associations as well as in journals of clubs or associations for an unlimited period of time. With reference to §23 Abs. 1 Nr. 3 KunstUrhG there is a special right that publication of images with people who appear as a crowd is allowed without his/her consent. It explicitly refers to a subsequent right of withdrawal. If you request a deletion of an image after publication, the organizer will comply with this request. In case of minor participants, the legal guardians agree to the above rules with their signatures on the registration.
Privacy Statement for the Conduct of the Race	By registering for this race personal information will be collected or provided from other sources. This information is used exclusively for the registration and for the conduct of the race and will not be passed on to uninvolved third parties; especially not for advertising purposes. This contest is public therefore we will publish all relevant information (forename, surname, place, club, birth, competition class) as well as achieved results and pass it on to interested press media. According to Art. 6 Abs. 1 DS-GVO (General Data Protection Regulation - GDPR) we inform the affected persons in advance. By registering for this race, the athlete agrees to the collection, processing, storage and use of personal data and the publication of registration, starting and result lists.

The result lists are stored during the competition year for transparency reasons and are available as download on the internet. The athlete may contradict in writing against this storage (via Email: Datenschutz@driv.de). In this case the personal details are blackened or effaced and the original data will only be published for a period of 2 months. The information of an e-mail address only serves for sending the confirmation of registration, for any inquiries and for the information of the participants. In case of minor participants, the legal guardians/parents agree to the rules as above with their signatures on the registration.
